

Lord Blantyre's

Strathspey

Arr. for pipes, Michael Kerr

The musical score consists of four staves of music. The first staff contains the main melody. The second staff begins with the word "same" written twice, indicating a repeat of the first staff's melody. The third staff contains a second melody. The fourth staff begins with the word "same" written once, indicating a repeat of the third staff's melody. The notation includes various note values, rests, and bar lines.

*) Composer unknown

*) Sources: This strathspey can be found in pipe and fiddle collections, though not like it is here as I put my setting to correspond to the Gaelic wording. This can be heard sung by Alasdair Gillies on an old LP (The Voice Of The Highlands). It is his version which is included on audio cassette tape provided with this package.
